Dear Mr. Henline:

Miss Brennan, of Mr. G. Faccioli's household at 81 East Housatonic Street, Pittsfield, Mass., has asked for an extra copy of Electrical Engineering for February 1934, the issue containing G. Faccioli's obituary. She also states that the February 1934 issue normally sent G. Faccioli, due to his membership, has not been received.

Will you please see if his membership and subscription to Electrical Engineering permits you to send a February 1934 issue to 81 East Housatonic Street, Pittsfield, Mass., and an extra issue for Miss Brennan?

Very truly yours,

C. H. Kline

Dear Madam:

Under separate cover we are mailing you two copies of the February 1934 issue of the Institute's publication, ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING, which contains on pages 368 and 369 an obituary notice for Mr. G. Faccioli.

We are sorry to learn from the letter which we have received today from Mr. C. H. Kline that through some misunderstanding our mailing list was corrected before the regular copy of this issue was mailed to you.

Very truly yours,

Office Manager
