My dear Martin:-

Mr. Hutchinson has handed me your letter of March 10th, asking for some reprints or clippings of the Fortieth Anniversary speeches in the March Journal. I shall have some of these reprints run and send you a number of them as soon as they are available, probably in about two weeks.

Yours very truly,

EDITOR.

Dear Hutchinson:

I am glad to note
my little historical sketch in the March "Journal" and to be able now to get an account in full.

I would be very glad to get a dozen clippings of that part, or even to pay for 40 or 50 little page reprints.
I don't want the whole issue.

Please note the enclosed from Charles Edison. I have been urging him to join the

A. I. E. E. If you will now send him a blank, with a little note of your own, I think we can put it over of course lots of us will be willing to endorse.

Yours truly
The Master

My dear Martin:-

We have decided almost at the last minute to include the addresses at the Fortieth Anniversary Meeting practically in full in the March issue, and in accordance with your request, I am sending you back your manuscript for any revision which you may desire to make. As a newspaper man, you will understand that I have very little time to prepare this for the March 1st issue and I trust you will return me the copy with your revisions at the very earliest moment possible.

Yours very truly,

My dear Martin:-

I was glad to receive your letter of Feb. 15th and to learn that you are again on the road to recovery. Your contribution to the Fortieth Anniversary Celebration was read by your agent and sounded as if it were written by a man who was entirely responsible and in his right mind. We shall certainly use considerable of it in describing the meeting in the Journal and would be glad to send you a proof of it for your approval as soon as we get it fixed up.

With kindest personal regards, I remain,

Yours very truly,

E D I T O R.

My dear Metcalfe:

It has occurred to me as I emerge from hospital and get home, that you may be devoting some space in the "Journal" to the anniversary celebration. If you should use my little "paper," or speech to any extent, I would be glad to look over the proof. It may be quite O.K. but it was written on a sickbed in pain and weariness, when, even if I was "responsible," I was not at the height of the conditions that make for accuracy, or grace of expression.

I hated like sin not to be there, but for the last eight weeks I have been "missing" on all six cylinders, and it will be some little time still before I can quit the furber of Larchmont and mingle freely with the public.

My regards to Hutchinson.
and with thanks in advance to yourself.

Ever/answering
T. C. Martin
