Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Hering:

I enclose herewith a letter addressed to the Misses Houston, transmitting the resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors.

If you think the matter is in proper form will you kindly forward the letter? Personally, I think it would be very much better if you would write a letter transmitting the resolutions, as on account of your acquaintance with the Misses Houston you could give a personal touch to the letter.

Very truly yours,

Enc.

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

My Aunts, the Misses Houston, have received, through Mr. Carl Hering of this city, your communication of March 17, 1914, transmitting copy of the resolutions in memory of Past-President Dr. Edwin J. Houston, which were adopted by your Board at its meeting held on March 13, 1914.

Permit me, for them, to convey to the Institute their expression of thanks for the tribute you have paid. Such thoughts are of lasting impression and long cherished.

Yours very truly,

H. H. Houston
