Mr. H. H. Henline,
National Secretary,
American Institute of Electrical Engineers,
33 West 39th Street,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Henline:

On August 14, 1931, I passed my 70th birthday, and soon thereafter my attention was directed by a letter from your office to the effect that I was entitled to exemption from dues after the above date, upon making application for such exemption.

As you know the Institute has honored me with various offices, up to and including its presidency, which honors I greatly appreciate, and at the time of the notice I felt that I could not express my loyalty to the Institute and its members in any better way than by continuing to pay the annual dues so long as I felt I was in a position to do so.

Circumstances are now such that it is essential that I curtail my expenditures wherever I can, and although my loyalty continues the same as ever, I must respectfully request that I be relieved from dues in accordance with the constitution of the Institute, as pointed out by your office in the above mentioned letter.

I enclose my check for the 1933 annual dues.

With best wishes for the continued success of the Institute, and assuring you and the Board of Directors that I will do whatever I can for its interest at any time, I am

Very sincerely yours,

FOLDER

Dear Mr. Arnold:

We acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 20th, and wish to express our appreciation of your payment of dues for the present fiscal year. The receipted statement and a membership card are attached.

We sincerely appreciate the splendid attitude which you have expressed toward the Institute and your intention of continuing to pay dues, even though you have been exempt, until circumstances recently made it desirable to take advantage of your exemption.

We shall, of course, be glad to note our records to indicate that no further payments of dues will be expected from you, and, in accordance with our practice, your name will be reported to the Executive Committee among others who are similarly exempt.

With very best wishes for your health and happiness in the future, I am

Sincerely yours

National Secretary
