HARRISON IN SUPPLY POST

Telephone Official Becomes Army Procurement Colonel

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP)— William H. Harrison, a vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company was sworn in today as a colonel in the Army. He will become director of a procurement and distribution division headquarters, Services of Supply, on July 1.

Mr. Harrison, who is on leave of absence from the Telephone Company, has been director of the production division of OPM since September. In his new post, he will succeed Brig. Gen. C. D. Young, who will retire from active duty July 1. Mr. Young, formerly vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, returned to active duty in the Army on Feb. 20.
