ARTICLE III.

ADMISSION, TRANSFER AND EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

9. Honorary Members shall be proposed in writing by at least ten members, and may be elected only by the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors, a ballot in writing to be forwarded by members absent from the Directors' meeting. The election of an Honorary Member shall be deemed invalid if an acceptance is not received within six months after the date of his election.

10. Application may be made for admission to any grade of membership. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, applicants shall give references to members of the INSTITUTE as follows:

For the grade of Fellow, to five Fellows.

For the grade of Member, to four Fellows or Members.

For the grade of Associate, to three Fellows, Members or Associates.

Application may be made for transfer from the grade of Member to the grade of Fellow, or from the grade of Associate to the grade of Member or to the grade of Fellow.

Should an applicant for admission or transfer to any grade certify that he is not personally known to the above specified number of Fellows, Members or Associates who are sufficiently familiar with the applicant's experience to justify him in using their names as references, the Board of Examiners may accept, for the deficiency, other references, preferably professional engineers of standing.

11. Regulations as to the form of applications, and of transfers from one grade to another, and as to the method of their consideration, shall be prescribed in the By-laws.

12. All elections and transfers shall be by vote of the Board of Directors; two negative votes shall exclude a candidate.

13. The Board of Directors may refuse to elect or transfer any applicant whose character, reputation or professional conduct would make him, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, an undesirable member.

14. A member of any grade in the INSTITUTE may resign his membership by a written communication to the National Secretary. If all his dues and other indebtedness have been paid his resignation shall be accepted, unless charges have been preferred against him in accordance with Section 15.

15. Upon the written request of ten or more Fellows, Members, or Associates that, for cause stated therein, a Fellow, Member, or Associate of the INSTITUTE be expelled, the Board of Directors shall consider the matter, and if there appears to be sufficient reason, shall notify the accused of the charges against him, by mailing a communication to the address of the accused as it appears in the INSTITUTE records. He shall then have the right to present a written defence, and to appear for trial, in person or by duly authorized representative, before a meeting of the Board of Directors, of which meeting he shall be notified at least twenty days in advance. Not less than two months after such meeting, the Board of Directors shall finally consider the case, and if in the opinion of the Board of Directors the charges have been sustained, the accused may be expelled or suspended for such period as the Board may determine, or he may be permitted to resign.

ARTICLE IV.

DUES.

16. The entrance and transfer fees, payable on admission to the INSTITUTE, or upon transfer, shall be as follows:

Admission to the grade of Fellow,	twenty (20) dollars.
“ “ “ “ “ Member,	fifteen (15) “
“ “ “ “ “ Associate,	ten (10) “

The transfer fee from one grade of membership to another shall be the difference between the corresponding admission fees.

17. The annual dues shall be as follows:

For Fellows,	twenty (20) dollars.
“ Members,	fifteen (15) “
“ Associates,	ten (10) “ for the first six years of membership as an Associate; thereafter fifteen (15) dollars.

18. Honorary Members shall be exempt from all payments.

19. Persons elected after any portion of the fiscal year shall have expired, shall pay dues pro rata for the unexpired quarters of that fiscal year.

20. A Fellow, Member, or Associate in good standing may become exempt from all future payments for annual dues in that grade by making a single payment of an amount sufficient to purchase an annuity for his life, of a sum equal to the annual dues of his grade, in accordance with details given in the By-laws. On transfer to a higher grade, a Member or Associate who shall have made such single payment for the lower grade, shall pay the usual transfer fee and an amount sufficient to purchase an annuity for his life of a sum equal to the difference between the annual dues of the two grades concerned.

21. A Fellow, Member or Associate who is in arrears for one year or more for all or any part of his dues, may be dropped from membership, as delinquent, by the Board of Directors. A Fellow, Member or Associate who has been dropped as delinquent, may be reinstated upon payment of all back dues, retaining his original date of election.

22. Upon application, the Board of Directors shall exempt from future annual dues any Fellow, Member or Associate who has paid dues for thirty-five (35) years, or who shall have reached the age of seventy (70) after having paid dues for thirty (30) years.

The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, remit the dues of any Fellow, Member or Associate whose name has been upon the membership list for a long term of years.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS.

23. The officers of the INSTITUTE shall be a President, one Vice-President from each geographical district as defined in the By-Laws, twelve Managers, a National Secretary, and a National Treasurer.

24. The President, the National Secretary, and the National Treasurer shall hold office for one year, the Vice-Presidents for two years, and the Managers for four years. The President, Vice-Presidents, and Managers shall not be eligible for immediate re-election to the same office excepting as provided in Section 25 for filling unexpired terms. No Vice-President or Manager who has served continuously in one or more offices, and whose combined terms shall have aggregated six years or more, shall be eligible for immediate election to the office of Manager or Vice-President. At each Annual Meeting the President, the requisite number of Vice-Presidents to fill the vacancies caused by expiration of terms, three Managers, and the National Treasurer shall be elected by the membership, and their terms of office shall commence on the first of August next succeeding their election. The National Secretary shall be appointed by the Board of Directors.

24A. At the election of Vice-Presidents held in 1921 there shall be elected one Vice-President from each geographical district, those from the odd-numbered districts to serve for one year each, and those from the even-numbered districts two years each. All Vice-Presidents elected thereafter shall serve for two years each. In the event of a change in the geographical districts, the Vice-Presidents then in office shall complete their terms. In case of revisions of the geographical districts, the Board of Directors shall have the power to elect a Vice-President from each district not represented, to serve until the next election covering these districts.

25. All vacancies shall be filled by election by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term. A vacancy in the office of President shall be filled by the election of one of the Vice-Presidents who is a Fellow. A vacancy in the office of Vice-President shall be filled by the election of a Fellow or Member from the geographical district concerned. Such election by the Board of Directors shall not render an officer ineligible for immediate election to the same office unless his combined terms of continuous service as an officer shall have aggregated six years or more.

26. No officer shall receive, directly or indirectly, any salary, compensation or emolument from the INSTITUTE, either as such officer, or in any other capacity, unless authorized by a vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors.

27. No officer shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract relating to the operations conducted by the INSTITUTE, nor in any contract for furnishing supplies thereto, unless expressly authorized by the By-laws or by the unanimous vote of the members of the Board of Directors present at any meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

28. There shall be constituted each year a National Nominating Committee consisting of one representative of each geographical district, elected by its Executive Committee, and other members chosen by and from the Board of Directors not exceeding in number the number of geographical districts; all to be selected when and as provided in the By-laws: The National Secretary of the INSTITUTE shall be the secretary of the National Nominating Committee, without voting power.

29. The executive committee of each geographical district shall act as a nominating committee of the candidate for election as Vice-President of that district, or for filling a vacancy in such office for an unexpired term, whenever a vacancy occurs.

30. The National Nominating Committee shall receive such suggestions and proposals as any member or group of members may desire to offer, such suggestions being sent to the secretary of the committee.

The National Nominating Committee shall name on or before December 15 of each year, one or more candidates for President, National Treasurer and the proper number of Managers, and shall include in its ticket such candidates for Vice-Presidents as have been named by the nominating committees of the respective geographical districts, if received by the National Nominating Committee when and as provided in the By-laws; otherwise the National Nominating Committee shall nominate one or more candidates for Vice-President(s) from the district(s) concerned.

31. Independent nominations may be made by a petition of twenty-five (25) or more members sent to the National Secretary when and as provided in the By-laws; such petitions for the nomination of Vice-Presidents shall be signed only by members within the district concerned.

32. During the first week in March of each year the National Secretary shall mail to all qualified voters an official ballot on which are to be listed all eligible candidates, nominated as provided in Sections 30 and 31. The candidates of the National Nominating Committee shall be appropriately designated as such. Any nominee may, prior to the printing of the ballots, withdraw his name by written request to the National Secretary, whereupon that fact shall be suitably indicated upon the ballot.

The voting for each office shall be restricted to the nominees for that office as printed on the ballot. The ballot shall be accompanied with an envelope on which shall be printed the title of the Institute, the name and address of the National Secretary and the words, "Official Voting Envelope—Enclosing a Ballot Only." All names voted for shall be written, printed or otherwise marked on a single ticket or ballot, which shall be enclosed in a sealed, unmarked and unidentified inner envelope of any suitable character, which shall in turn be enclosed either in the "Official Voting Envelope" (received from the National Secretary), or any other envelope, marked on its face, "Non-Official Voting Envelope—Enclosing a Ballot Only." The outer envelope of either class shall be identified by the name of the sender on its face, shall be sealed, and in order to be counted, shall reach the National Secretary not later than the first day of May.

33. The President, during the month of March, shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, seven Fellows, Members, or Associates, not members of the Board of Directors or of the National Nominating Committee, to constitute the Committee of Tellers. Any Fellow, Member or Associate not a member of the Board of Directors or of the National Nominating Committee, who shall deliver to the National Secretary on or before the first day of March, a written petition signed by at least twenty Fellows, Members, or Associates, stating their desire that he be a member of the Committee of Tellers, shall also be a member of that committee, provided that the aforesaid signatures shall not have appeared on another similar petition.

34. The Committee of Tellers shall meet at the office of the INSTITUTE as soon after the first day of May as possible, and shall receive, unopened, all ballots from the National Secretary, who shall also make to it a written report of the number of ballots received on and before, and after, the first day of May. It shall forthwith proceed, in secret, to count the vote, after first eliminating the ballots of members who are delinquent or otherwise disqualified from voting, and shall prepare and sign in duplicate a report of the results of the vote, which shall be sealed, and of which one copy shall forthwith be filed with the National Secretary, and of which the other copy shall remain in possession of the chairman of the committee who shall hand this report to the presiding officer at the ensuing Annual Meeting. In the absence of this report by the chairman of the committee, the National Secretary shall produce the duplicate copy, and hand the same to the presiding officer of the meeting. The presiding officer shall cause the report to be read at the first session of the Annual Meeting and shall declare duly elected the eligible persons receiving the greatest number of votes for the respective offices.

ARTICLE VII.

with warrants executed by the National Secretary. He shall have charge of the books and accounts of the INSTITUTE. He shall furnish to the Board of Directors from time to time such statements as may be required. He shall conduct the correspondence of the INSTITUTE, and shall keep full records. He shall be in responsible charge, under the President and the Board of Directors, of all the property of the INSTITUTE. He shall, with the approval of the Board of Directors, employ such clerical force as may be necessary and shall be responsible for the work of all employees of the INSTITUTE. 41. The National Treasurer and the National Secretary shall invest such funds as may be ordered by the Board of Directors. They shall pay bills when approved by the Finance Committee, for expenditures authorized by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may authorize the National Treasurer and the National Secretary to pay certain specified routine expenses in advance of approval by the Finance Committee. The National Treasurer shall make an annual report and such other reports as may be prescribed.

42. The Board of Directors may delegate any or all of its powers to an Executive Committee of seven members, consisting of the President and the National Treasurer, ex-officio, and five other members of the Board of Directors, which committee shall conduct the affairs of the Board of Directors between its meetings.

All of its members shall be Fellows of the INSTITUTE.

Each standing committee shall include at least one member of the Board of Directors. All committees shall be directly responsible to the Board of Directors, shall act under its direction and shall perform such duties and have such powers as specified in this Constitution, in the By-laws, and as delegated to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may, at any time, at its own discretion, remove any or all members of any committee and appoint others. The terms of the members of all standing and special committees shall terminate at the close of the administrative year, July 31, or as soon thereafter as their successors are appointed.

45. All official communications of committees to the Board of Directors shall be made through the National Secretary unless otherwise specially ordered by the Board of Directors.

49. The Annual Meeting of the INSTITUTE shall be held in the City of New York, beginning on the third Friday in May, when a report of the proceedings of the INSTITUTE for the past fiscal year shall be furnished by the Board of Directors. This report shall be verified by the National Secretary and approved by the Board of Directors. It shall show the whole amount of real and personal property owned, where located, where and how invested; the amount and nature of the property acquired during the past fiscal year and the manner of its acquisition; the amount applied, appropriated or expended during the year, and the purposes, objects or persons to or for which such applications, appropriations or expenditures have been made; and all other essential facts bearing upon the status of the INSTITUTE. This report shall be filed with the records of the INSTITUTE and an abstract thereof entered in the minutes of the Annual Meeting. The reports of all officers and of the standing committees shall be presented at the Annual Meeting, and the vote for officers for the ensuing year shall then be announced. The time and place of such Convention shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

51. Except otherwise provided by law or by the Constitution, special meetings of the Institute for the transaction of business may be called by the Board of Directors at any time, by written notice stating the specific object thereof mailed to each Fellow, Member and Associate at least ten (10) days prior to the date of said meeting.

53. Cushing's Manual shall govern the procedure at meetings of the INSTITUTE and of the Board of Directors, when not in conflict with the Constitution and By-laws.

ARTICLE IX.

INSTITUTE SECTIONS AND BRANCHES.

54. Whenever, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, a sufficient number of Fellows, Members and Associates shall petition, in writing, these members may form, subject to the Constitution and all By-laws and regulations which may be hereafter prescribed by the Board of Directors, a Section organization for the purpose of more effectually carrying out the aims of the INSTITUTE.

55. Any Fellow, Member or Associate may become a member of such Section, but a Fellow, Member or Associate shall be entitled to vote, or hold office, in one Section only.

56. The officers of each Section shall consist of a Chairman, a Secretary, and such other officers as each Section may find desirable. These officers shall be elected by the votes of the Fellows, Members and Associates of the Section, in the manner provided in the Section By-laws. The election of any Fellow, Member or Associate as a Section officer, shall not debar him from election or appointment to any other office in the INSTITUTE.

57. The Chairman of the Section shall perform the duties usually devolving upon the Chairman of any organization, and in addition shall be ex-officio a member of the Sections Committee of the INSTITUTE. He shall have the privilege of appearing before the Board of Directors at any meeting, on giving due notice of his intention to do so, for the purpose of conference with the Board of Directors, in regard to any matters pertaining to the affairs of the INSTITUTE in his Section. The Chairman shall perform such other duties and shall have such other powers as may be delegated to him by the Board of Directors.

58. The Secretary shall report the proceedings of the Section to the National Secretary of the INSTITUTE; he shall, in general, discharge the duties of a Secretary both to the Section itself and in its relation to the INSTITUTE; he shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed in the Section By-laws, or in the By-laws of the INSTITUTE, or delegated to him by the Board of Directors.

59. Each Section may have the privilege of being represented at the Annual Convention, by an official delegate, who shall be the Chairman of that Section, or, in his absence or inability to attend, by an alternate delegate selected by the Section. The official delegate attending the Annual Convention may have his expenditures for transportation refunded by the INSTITUTE, as provided in the By-laws.

60. The Sections may hold meetings at such times and places as may be determined by their officers, for the purpose of carrying on their work.

61. Any Section may adopt for its own government such By-laws to be known as "Section By-laws" as it may find expedient, provided that no provision thereof shall be incompatible with the Constitution or the By-laws of the INSTITUTE.

62. Branches may be formed at institutions of learning and Student meetings may be held as provided in the By-laws.

63. Sections and Branches may be dissolved in the manner specified in the By-laws for failure to comply with the Constitution and By-laws of the INSTITUTE.

ARTICLE X.

GENERAL.

64. A quorum at the Annual Meeting, or at any special business meeting, present in person or by proxy, shall consist of not less than three per cent (3%) of the total membership of the Institute.

65. Every Fellow, Member or Associate entitled to vote at any meeting may so vote by proxy, signed by the Fellow, Member or Associate and filed with the National Secretary before the meeting at which it is to be voted. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless the Fellow, Member or Associate executing it shall have specified therein the length of time it is to continue in force, which shall be for some limited period. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the person executing it.

66. The fiscal year of the INSTITUTE shall terminate with the thirtieth day of April.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS.

67. Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by means of a petition signed by not less than one hundred (100)

Fellows, Members or Associates and received by the National Secretary not later than February first; or by means of a Resolution adopted by the Board of Directors not later than February first. Such proposed amendment or amendments shall be submitted to legal counsel by the Board of Directors, and if, in the opinion of such counsel, they are in accordance with the laws under which the INSTITUTE is organized, a copy shall be mailed, with a letter ballot, to each Fellow, to each Member and to each Associate, not less than sixty (60) days before the Annual Meeting.

68. Votes, to be considered, shall be written or printed and received, through the mail or otherwise, by the National Secretary not later than one week before the Annual Meeting. The National Secretary shall hand these votes unopened to the committee of Tellers, which shall count such votes and make a sealed report to the Board of Directors in duplicate, of which one copy shall forthwith be filed with the National Secretary, and of which the other copy shall remain in possession of the chairman of the committee, who shall hand this report to the presiding officer at the annual meeting. In the absence of this report by the chairman of the committee the National Secretary shall produce the duplicate copy and hand the same to the presiding officer of the meeting. The presiding officer shall then cause the report to be read. If the total vote be not less than twenty per cent. (20%) of the total membership of the INSTITUTE, and if seventy-five per cent. (75%) or more of all the Fellows, Members and Associates voting shall declare themselves in favor of the proposed amendment or amendments, the same shall become a part of the Constitution.

69. Amendments shall take effect thirty (30) days after their adoption, but officers and officers-elect of the INSTITUTE at the time any amendment becomes effective shall continue in office until the end of the terms for which they were elected.

70. Without changing their import the Board of Directors may number, and from time to time re-number, the various sections of the Constitution so as to serve the purpose of ready reference thereto.

71. The National Secretary shall print copies of the amendments as soon as practicable after adoption, and distribute the same to Fellows, Members and Associates.
