Dear Warren:

Here is a draft of the letter I would expect to send to all of our Section Chairmen on February 3. In order to get it out on February 3, I have, of course, anticipated our meetings of January 31, but not harmfully, I hope, unless they or your Board meeting of February 2 produce negative majority views. I will be out of pocket from February 1 until Saturday evening, February 3, and I have asked George Bailey to arrange with you during our panel session on January 31 to be contacted by you either after your Board meeting on February 2 or on the morning of February 3. If the results of your Board meeting are such that you are satisfied to have this letter go out on February 3, it will only be necessary to tell George Bailey to go ahead. If only minor changes are involved, please give them to George and he will make these corrections and still go ahead. If you feel major corrections are necessary after your meeting of February 2, I have instructed George to simply hold up issuance of the letter until I get back to Dallas on February 8.

You will recall that we plan to print Lloyd Berkner's three 1961 letters to our Section Chairmen and this letter of mine and the Principles of Consolidation in a separate pamphlet for distribution to all IRE members with the March issue of the Proceedings.

I would very much appreciate your comments and criticisms.

Sincerely,

P. E. Haggerty
