Rowland R. Hazard
(Associate 1884)

E.E.

Treasurer 1884-86

THE INSTITUTE'S first treasurer was Rowland Robinson Hazard. Mr. Hazard was a charter member of the Institute, and at the time of its formation was president of the Gramme Electric Company, of New York City. He presented a paper, "The Scientific Street," at the Institute's first technical meeting, October 7-8, 1884. About 5 years ago Mr. Hazard died at his home on the Island of Jersey, England, where he had lived many years. He was over 90 years of age.
